Crime and Enforcement Update

On January 31, at 11:00 a.m., Officers Kwan and Hui were on patrol at Bacon and Bowdoin when they saw a maroon Infiniti drive past them and recognized the vehicle from an earlier Communications broadcast as having just been reported as stolen. The officers stopped the vehicle and arrested the driver, who was wearing a bullet-resistant vest. The driver spontaneously stated that he had to wear the vest because he is a "rapper." The subject, living on the 300 block of Hamilton, was booked for stolen auto (050 117 718).

On January 31, at 12:00 p.m., Bayview Officer Kwan responded to a residential treatment facility on Carr Street regarding a person with a knife. As the officer arrived he found several women screaming and pointing at another woman, who was holding a knife and waving it in the air. The officer ordered the woman to drop the knife and she refused, shouting out, "Shoot me!" The woman eventually dropped the knife and was taken into custody. The officer interviewed the caller who stated that the suspect had threatened to kill her following an argument, and had then threatened her with the knife. The woman was booked for threats, brandishing a deadly weapon and resisting arrest (050 119 162).

On January 31, at 3:57 p.m., Bayview Officers Siguido, Dockery and Reynoso recovered a stolen motorcycle at 132 Kiska Road and had the motorcycle towed. The officers were contacted by the tow driver at 4:20 p.m. and told that, as he was taking the motorcycle back to his yard, he stopped for a moment at 3rd and Cargo and two suspects approached his tow truck, cut the straps holding down the motorcycle, and stole the motorcycle. The suspects are described only as black males in dark clothing. The motorcycle is a 1998 Yamaha, yellow in color, no plates (050 312 450).

On January 31, at 5:10 p.m., Bayview Officers Reynoso, Olson, Sanders and Rodatos responded to the 700 block of Kirkwood on the report of a shooting. The officers learned that the shooting victim had already driven to SFGH and they responded there to conduct the interview. The victim told officers that he had been seated in a parked vehicle on Kirkwood and had become involved in an argument with "Fat Simon" over a $30 debt. The victim stated that "Fat Simon" motioned to a man hiding nearby in the bushes, and the second man came out with a rifle and shot him (the victim). The officers were able to identify "Fat Simon," and the case is being handled by our Gang Unit (050 120 896).

On January 31, at 7:00 p.m., Officers Lew and Archini responded to the 1300 block of Ingalls on a call that security officers had detained two individuals with drugs. The officers took custody of the two subjects. The first man, living in Martinez, was charged with possession of crack cocaine for sale and trespassing. The second man, living in Concord, was charged with possession of crack cocaine (050 121 587).

On January 31, at 10:02 p.m., Bayview Officers Singh and Anderson were on patrol at Toland and Newcomb when they stopped a man riding a bicycle for traffic violations. The man, a transient, had two outstanding warrants for his arrest charging him with drug violations. The man was arrested for the warrants (050 121 838).

On January 31, at 11:05 p.m., Bayview Officers Wilhelm and Wise were working an auto-boosting detail on Potrero Hill when they received a call of an auto boosting in progress at 18th and Texas. The officers responded and spoke with the caller who told them that he had returned to his parked van and found a man reaching into the (forced open) driver's side window. The caller saw a Toyota 4-Runner double parked adjacent to his van, and upon seeing the caller, both the suspect and the 4-Runner fled the area. The suspect is a black male, 20-25, 6'1", 160, wearing a black knit cap, black jacket and black pants. The Toyota 4-Runner was tan in color, plate unknown (050 122 068).

On January 31, at 11:21 p.m., Bayview Officers Wong and Bernal responded to a home on the 1600 block of Newcomb and interviewed the resident who said she had just found an expended bullet inside her son's bedroom. The caller remembered hearing numerous gunshots on 1/29 around 7:00 p.m., and feels this bullet had been fired during that incident (050 122 096).
