BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE August 17, 2005

Disneyland Trip for Hunter's Point Kids

Forty very excited kids boarded the chartered bus at 11:00 p.m. last night for their trip to Disneyland. The youngest kids were the most excited, but all of them were looking forward to the adventure. Thanks again to all of you who sponsored a child for this very worthwhile event.

Bayview Farmers Market - New Location

The Bayview Hunters Point Farmers' Market has moved to a new location, in the parking lot adjacent to the Bayview Opera House. The market is open every Saturday through November 19th, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The Bayview Opera House is located at 3rd Street & Oakdale Avenue (MUNI lines #15, 19, 23, 29, 44, and 54). The Bayview Hunters Point Farmers' Market needs your support, so bring your family and friends. Food stamps and WIC coupons will be accepted at the market. For more information or free coupons for the market, please call SF Environment at (415) 355-3723.

Gun Case Dispositions

I mentioned back in March that we were going to begin tracking our gun arrest cases in an effort to find out why so many armed gang members seem to be on the streets of the Bayview, even though our officers are arresting them on a constant basis. We have almost six month's worth of data, and it was a bit shocking when we first started to take a look at it. Although the cases of most of the individuals arrested for gun charges in the past six months have not yet been settled, 17 cases have been, and these are the results:

A man booked for a stolen, loaded and concealed handgun pled guilty to a misdemeanor and was given 3 years probation and 3 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for a loaded and concealed handgun was given misdemeanor probation.
A man booked for a loaded and concealed handgun pled guilty to a felony and was given 90 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of an assault rifle pled guilty to a misdemeanor and was given 3 years probation and 90 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of a concealed handgun and drugs had the gun charge dismissed and the drug charge prosecuted.
A man booked for aggravated assault with a firearm had the case dismissed.
A man booked for possession of an assault rifle had the case dismissed.
A man booked for possession of a concealed handgun with obliterated serial numbers pled guilty to a misdemeanor and was given 3 years probation and 90 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of a loaded and concealed handgun pled guilty to a misdemeanor and was given three years probation and 2 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of a loaded and concealed handgun pled guilty to a felony and was given 83 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of a loaded and concealed handgun had the case dismissed.
A man booked for possession of a stolen, concealed, and loaded handgun pled guilty to a misdemeanor and was given 90 days in the County Jail.

A man booked for possession of a firearm by a felon pled guilty to a misdemeanor and was given 37 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of a firearm by a felon pled guilty to a felony and was given 6 months in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of a firearm by a felon pled guilty to a misdemeanor and was given 37 days in the County Jail.
A man booked for possession of a firearm with obliterated serial numbers had the case dismissed.
A man booked for possession of a firearm by a felon had the case dismissed.

Crime and Enforcement Update

Rape, Armstrong and Keith, August 16, 3:38 a.m.
Bayview Officers Foss and Bernal responded on a rape call and met with a woman who reported that she had just been raped. The victim stated that she had met the suspect on the street and had agreed to smoke some crack with him, and the suspect had then forcibly raped her. The suspect is described as a black male, 40, 6'0", 140, dreadlock hair, wearing a baby blue shirt and blue jean pants (050 916 247).

Warrant Arrest, 1411 Shafter, August 16, 7:15 a.m.
Bayview Officers Altorfer and Remedios responded on a burglary in progress call and located a woman matching the description provided walking away from the area. The woman was detained and it was determined that she was currently wanted. The woman, a transient, was booked for the warrant charging her with possession of stolen property. There was no merit to the burglary call (050 916 504).

Warrant Arrest, Kirkwood and Phelps, August 16, 9:30 a.m.
Bayview Officer Rodatos was assisting on a traffic stop when he determined that one of the passengers in the stopped vehicle was wanted. The suspect, a transient, was arrested and booked for a warrant charging him with burglary (041 351 224).

Threats, 1162 Ingerson, August 16, 1:00 p.m.
Bayview Officers Escobar and Calaunan responded on a threats call and spoke with a man who reported that a man he knows from the neighborhood had just threatened to kill him. The suspect is a known auto burglar in the area, and was angry at the victim because he felt that the victim had "snitched" on him after he broke into the victim's car. The suspect, known as "Red," is a black male, 25-30, 5'6", 150, gold teeth, wearing a green windbreaker and green hat (050 919 144).

Warrant Arrest, Fitzgerald and Jennings, August 16, 1:59 p.m.
Bayview Officers Stoumen, Aherne, Fitzpatrick and Bandvik were on patrol when they saw a woman they knew to be wanted. The woman hid between two parked cars upon seeing the officers, and the officers placed her under arrest. The woman, a transient, was booked for a warrant charging her with trespassing and public nuisance (010 326 614).

Suspicious Occurrence, 1130 Palou, August 16, 5:15 p.m.
Bayview Officers Madrid and Archini responded on a call that someone was being maced and located two teen-age girls who were both flushing mace out of their eyes. A large group of onlookers was present, but none would speak with the officers, except to say that a "fight" had occurred. The two girls provided fictitious names and phone numbers to the officers and refused to provide any additional information (the officers heard people at the scene referring to the girls by other names, and when the officers later phoned the girls in an attempt to gather additional information, they found that the phone numbers were bad). 050 919 291

Battery, 1005 Fitzgerald, August 16, 5:40 p.m.
Bayview Officers Escobar and Calaunan responded on the report of a battery and spoke with a woman who reported that her 20 year old daughter had been involved in a fight with three other women in her home, and one of the other women had subsequently punched her one year old grandson, who was being held by the daughter. All three of the suspects are known to the victims and will be interviewed as part of a follow-up to the case (050 919 348).

Cocaine Arrest, 3rd and LaSalle, August 16, 6:51 p.m.
Bayview Officers Ellis, Stoumen and Bandvik received a report of drug dealing at 3rd and LaSalle and began to surveil the area from a nearby location. The officers saw two men engage in a drug deal and as the officers began approaching the men, one of them dropped some crack to the sidewalk and began stepping on it in an apparent attempt to squash it. Both men were arrested, and the seller, living on Wills, was booked for sales or crack, possession of crack for sale, violation of probation, and resisting arrest. The buyer, living on the 1400 block of McKinnon, was booked for possession of crack and destroying evidence (050 919 627).

Robbery, Cortland and Bayshore, August 16, 11:20 p.m.
Bayview Officers Olson and Rightmire responded to SFGH on the call of a robbery and spoke with a man who reported that he had been standing on the sidewalk when he was approached by a man who attempted to rob him. The suspect was joined by a second suspect who then stabbed the victim. Both suspects fled on foot following the stabbing. Suspect one is a black male, 20-25, 5'8", 160, short hair, wearing a black jacket, black shirt and blue jean pants. Suspect two is a black male wearing all dark clothing (050920 282).

Warrant Arrest, Custer and Rankin, August 17, 12:03 a.m.
Bayview Officer Cahill was dealing with a large homeless encampment when he came across a man living in a temporary structure. The man provided the name "Stanley Blackfeather" to the officer when asked his name, but eventually admitted that he had made up the name. The man was wanted under his actual name, and was booked for a warrant charging him with violation of parole (050 920 373).
