Juvenile Justice Reform
The Berkeley Center for Criminal Justice (BCCJ) and the National Council on Crime and Delinquency (NCCD) are co-sponsoring the "Juvenile Justice Reform: Forty Years After Gault" conference at UC Berkeley's Boalt Law School on October 26 & 27, 2007.

The conference will feature top juvenile justice leaders from the Bay Area and across the nation. It will focus on the key juvenile justice policy issues the nation is facing forty years after the seminal Supreme Court case of In re Gault established due process rights for children in the juvenile justice system.

Plenary panels will include a state legislator's panel, a judge's panel and a media panel. Breakout panel topics will include reforming juvenile corrections in California; juvenile justice, child welfare and mental health systems overlap; disproportionate minority confinement; alternatives to incarceration; legal representation of juveniles; restorative justice; reforming juvenile detention; trying juveniles as adults; and girls in the juvenile justice system.

The conference is attended for service providers, law enforcement officials, corrections officials, policy makers, attorneys, advocates, community leaders, funders, academics, students and others interested in juvenile justice reform.

To register for the conference or for more information, please go to

Walk For Food Allergy
More than 12 million people in the U.S.A. suffer from food allergies, including over 2 million school-aged children. Sadly there is currently no cure for food allergies. The national non-profit organization The Food Allergy & Anaphylaxis Network (FAAN) is working to change that, and you can help!

FAAN is holding a national fundraising event, Walk for Food Allergy: Moving Toward A Cure in 20 cities across the country. The Walk for Food Allergy in San Francisco will be in Golden Gate Park at the Music Concourse, in front of the de Young Museum.

The Walk for Food Allergy in San Francisco is Saturday, September 15th. Please sign up now! Those interested can register to walk as an individual, as part of a walk team, or if you cannot be there that day, as a "virtual walker". Individuals and businesses are also welcome to sponsor the event and to volunteer for the Walk.

Everyone is welcome to come join in the fun.

Crimes and Law Enforcement
THE BELOW LISTED INCIDENTS WERE SUBMITTED BY INDIVIDUALS OF BAYVIEW STATION:

Monday, August 27, 2007 at 3:44 PM – Local SF Warrant Arrest, Possession of Marijuana For Sale, Loitering Where Narcotics are Sold/Used. Unit Block of Dedman Court. CS# 070-875-128. Several plainclothes Officers responded over to Dedman Court to look for a male whom was wanted on a warrant. When the Officers arrived they saw the male loitering in front of one of the units on Dedman Court. The Officers arrested the male without incident and transported him to Bayview Station. A booking counter search revealed four small clear baggies of suspected marijuana and several dollars in U.S. Currency. The Officers confirmed the warrant and booked the male at Bayview Station.

Monday, August 27, 2007 at 7:56 PM – Warrant Arrest, Enroute To Parole. Unit Block of Northridge Road. CS# 070-876-198. While working in plainclothes and driving an unmarked police vehicle, Officer Ellis, Officer Kirchner, Officer Scott and Officer Lyons attempted to make contact with numerous individuals that were loitering in the area of Harbor Road at Northridge Road. As the Officers approached the individuals, they recognized a male adult whom they knew from previous police contacts. The Officers also knew that the male had an active no bail warrant. Officer Scott arrested the male without incident and transported him to Bayview Station where the warrant was confirmed. The male was booked at Bayview Station.

Tuesday, August 28, 2007 at 5:15 PM – Possession of Loaded Firearm, Carrying a Concealed Weapon. WestPoint Road/MiddlePoint Road. CS# 070-879-976 – Officer Foss and Officer Bernal were responding to a call for service at Malcolm X Academy when they heard what they believed to be shots fired over at WestPoint Road/MiddlePoint Road. As the Officers began to make their way to that location, they observed a vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed N/B on Ingalls up towards WestPoint Road/MiddlePoint Road. Officer Foss and Officer Bernal attempted to follow the vehicle. The Officers found the vehicle parked in-front of one of the units at WestPoint Road. There were several individuals hanging around the car. Additional units arrived on scene and the individuals were detained. A cursory search for weapons revealed that one of the individuals had a gun in his right front pant's pocket. Officer Pascua seized the gun and secured it in his patrol vehicle. Due to the large crowd that had gathered, all the individuals that were detained were transported to Bayview Station for further investigation. An investigator from Crime Scene Investigations responded to Bayview Station and took custody of the gun. The individual who had the gun was booked at Bayview Station, the other males were given a Certificate of Release Form and released from the station.

Wednesday, August 29, 2007 at 10:39 AM – Loitering About School or Playground. 5700 Block of 3rd Street. CS# 070-882-383 – Officer Anderson and Officer Cabuntala were conducting a passing call through the Marin Luther King Park when they observed a homeless person sleeping on the grass near the playground. There were several children in the playground area with their parents. The Officers woke up the male and informed him that it was illegal to loiter where children congregate. The Officers asked the male for his ID, but the male told them that he did not have one. The Officers transported the male to Bayview Station where they confirmed his identity through the SF Mugshot System. The male was cited and released from Bayview Station.

Friday, August 31, 2007 at 1:13 PM –Warrant Arrest, Enroute To Outside Jurisdiction. 100 Block of Thornton Avenue. CS# 070-891-196. Officer Dumont and Officer Erb were on patrol in a marked police vehicle when they observed a vehicle make an illegal left turn. They effected a traffic stop on the vehicle and identified the driver through her valid

California Driver's License. A records check revealed that the driver had an outstanding warrant for $10,000.00. The Officers transported the driver to Bayview Station where the warrant was confirmed through Central Warrants Bureau. The driver was booked at Bayview Station.

Friday, August 29, 2007 at 10:14 PM – Robbery With Gun. Kiska Road at Ingalls Street. CS# 070-893-158. Officer Brewster and Officer Bates were on patrol when they were flagged down by an individual regarding an armed robbery. The victim stated that as he was walking to his vehicle that was parked on Kiska Road at Ingalls Street, he observed an unknown male walking in his direction. The victim stated that as he attempted to get into his vehicle, the suspect approached him and pointed a gun at him and demanded his wallet and cell phone. The victim stated that he gave the suspect his wallet and cell phone and the suspect then ran S/B on Ingalls Street. The victim stated that he would be able to recognize the suspect if he saw him again. Officer Brewster and Officer Bates searched the area for the suspect with negative results.
