

B
19-088
04/22/19

NOBLE's 43rd Annual Training Conference

The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) was founded in 1976 to exchange views about the high rate of crime in urban communities and the socioeconomic conditions that lead to crime and violence. The mission of NOBLE is "to ensure equity in the administration of justice in the provision public service to all communities, and to serve as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action."

NOBLE will be holding its 43rd annual training conference August 9-14, 2019 in New Orleans, LA. Some of the workshop topics include:

- Lifelong wellness
- Career development through mentoring
- Community policing and procedural justice
- Cognitive interviewing techniques
- Ethical policing
- Forensic digital evidence and policing

Applicants must hold the rank of sergeants or above, be in good standing with the department and have a current membership with NOBLE.

Members wishing to attend this conference should submit a memorandum of interest and a completed conference application through their chain of command to the Deputy Chief of Administration. For a copy of the application and more information go to www.noblenational.org.

Memo should be submitted no later than Monday, May 13, 2019.

WILLIAM SCOTT
Chief of Police