[REDACTED]. When making notifications during day watch hours, please ensure you speak to a person; do not leave a voicemail message. There is no on-call for General Work; therefore, after-hour notifications are not necessary.

The General Work Detail will continue to investigate incidents that were previously handled by SIT. These incidents include, but are not limited to the following:

- Felony assaults (245, 243(d), 664/187, etc.)
- Felony elder abuse (not meeting SVU's criteria)
- Felony weapons
- Felony vandalism
- Estes robberies
- Terrorist Threats
- Felony resisting arrest (69 PC)
- Attempted burglaries
- Any other felonies not meeting another investigative unit's criteria

ALL missing person incidents will be handled by SVU-Missing Persons. Please adhere to the missing person criteria as outlined in DGO 6.10 Missing Persons.

If there are any questions, please contact the General Work Detail.
