COURAGE FOR A CHANGING WORKPLACE

A new intimate learning experience for diversity & inclusion, HR, culture, & people professionals & people underrepresented in the workplace.

Are you tired of diversity and inclusion and culture conferences where speakers make it sound like everything is great with diversity at their workplace? Exhausted of trying to persuade people at work to overcome unconscious bias? So are we.

We have organized a totally different learning experience where we will practice standing up for what's right at work. Join us April 10th in San Francisco for Backbone: Courage for a Changing Workplace.

As more people speak out about discrimination & harassment at work, do you have the backbone to stand by their side, even when it gets real uncomfortable?
