Executive Summary:

DOJ Objective: Recruitment, Hiring Personnel Practices

DOJ Recommendation #: 66.1

The SFPD should meet with OCC on a quarterly basis following the release of the Sparks Report to discuss the recommendations.

It should be noted that the Office of Citizen Complaints (OCC) is now known as the Department of Police Accountability (DPA).*

Purpose:

Chief Scott issued a written directive on 02/22/17 that commits to meeting with the DPA regarding the Sparks Report and additional relevant business matters. The Chief's directive further requires PSPPB to continue meeting with DPA on Sparks Report matters.

To comply with the Chiefs order and to directly address DOJ Recommendation 66.1, a PSPPB unit order 17-001 was issued by Deputy Chief Connolly requiring the Professional Standards and Principled Policing Bureau (PSPPB) to meet with the DPA quarterly following the release of the Sparks report to discuss the recommendations.

Policy:

This policy mandates the Department will meet with DPA quarterly to discuss Sparks Report recommendations.

This policy also mandates the Commanding Officer or designee of PSPPB to meet with DPA representatives, discuss the findings in the Sparks report, and determine if any action is needed.
