Officer Matthew Parra went to Nordstrom where security had two shoplifters in custody. One, who lives on the 400 block of Holladay, was cited for theft. The other, who lives on the 300 block of Chenery, was cited for theft and for possession of narcotics paraphernalia. Case #090168016

02/15/09 5:28 pm Santiago and Lower Great Highway

Officer David Goff and Sgt. Henry Woo responded on a report of a man breaking into an automobile. When they arrived they saw a man trying to jumpstart a vehicle by attaching cables to another vehicle. He had requested the cables from a passerby. The man stated that the vehicle belonged to his aunt. The officers noticed that the man had a bent coat hanger and spark plug chips in his possession. Both of these items are commonly used to enter locked vehicles through a window or by breaking a window. As the officers investigated further and were about to handcuff the man, he suddenly ran away east on Santiago and then down 47th Avenue. As the suspect ran, he took off his coat and threw it on the ground and discarded the coat hanger and chips. He dodged in and out of parked cars but was finally captured by Officers Yukio Oshita and John Shanahan on the 2400 block of 47th Avenue. The officers continued their investigation and found that one of the cars had been forcibly entered and the other car was reported stolen. The suspect, who lives on the 2600 block of 42nd Avenue, and has a lengthy criminal record, was arrested for a no bail parole warrant, burglary, receiving stolen property, auto theft and resisting arrest.
