

BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE September 9, 2004

County Jail Banner

This morning at 10:00 a.m., a large Anti-Violence banner was unfurled atop the County Jail building on 7th Street. The San Francisco 49ers were instrumental in getting this banner placed onto one of our public buildings, and team owner Doctor John York, Hall of Famer Carl Eller, ex-49ers Keena Turner and Jesse Sapolu, were all present. The 49ers are extremely interested in helping us to end the violence in the Bayview, and they have committed to helping us with our plans for the renovation of the Hunter's Point Gym as well.

Late Night Basketball

After months of committee meetings, we are now within two weeks of the official kick-off for Bayview's Late Night Basketball (note that the games will be played a bit earlier than previously planned, thus the "late night" as opposed to "midnight"). On September 22, the teams will be "drafted" and will play their first mini-games at the Joe Lee Gym. More information will be disseminated in the coming days, but we expect this program to be extremely successful.

Bayview District Meetings This Week

ROSES meets tonight at Bayview Station at 7:00 p.m.
