

BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE March 4, 2005

Joe Lee Rec Center Meeting

A meeting to discuss the renovation plans for the Joseph Lee Recreation Center will be held March 21, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., at the Joseph Lee Recreation Center hosted by the San Francisco Recreation & Parks Department. For more information please contact Mary Tienken, Project Director, SF Department of Recreation and Parks, at 581-2561.

From Supervisor Maxwell's Office

The following item is upcoming at the Board of Supervisors: Monday, March 21 - Ordinance creating new oversight and regulations for junk dealers. Among other provisions, the ordinance would require yearly reviews of junk dealer permits by the San Francisco Police Department and create higher performance standards, including maintenance of a detailed "Buy Book", by these businesses. The ordinance will be heard before the City Operations and Neighborhood Services Committee, which meets at 1:00 pm in City Hall room 263.

Crime and Enforcement Update

Buy / Bust Operation

Bayview's plainclothes team, working with members of our Narcotics Unit conducted another buy / bust operation in the district yesterday and made the following cases:

At 1:40 p.m., an undercover Narcotics officer purchased crack cocaine from a man at 3rd and Quesada. The seller was charged with sales of crack, possession of heroin, and an outstanding parole warrant charging him as a "parolee at large" (050 243 830).

An undercover Narcotics officer approached a group of three local drug dealers at LaSalle and Newhall at 2:00 p.m. and was offered crack cocaine by one of the men. Before the transaction could be completed, a fourth drug dealer alerted the group that the buyer was an officer and the sale was not completed. The first man, a convicted drug dealer and currently on felony probation for possession of cocaine for sale, has been admonished on four prior occasions regarding his drug loitering. This man, living on the 1500 block of Hudson, was arrested for drug loitering and violation of probation. An arrest search revealed ecstasy, and he was charged with this also. The second man, also a convicted drug dealer and also on probation for sales of crack, has also been admonished in the past for his drug loitering and has a current stay-away order from 3rd and McKinnon. This man, living on the 1500 block of Jerrold, was booked for drug loitering and violation of probation. The third man, also a convicted drug dealer and also on felony probation for possession for sale of crack, has also been admonished regarding his drug loitering, and also has a stay-away order issued for the 300 block of Ellis. This man, living on the 1100 block of Oakdale, was booked for drug loitering. The fourth man, convicted of drug possession charges, has also been admonished regarding his drug loitering. This man, living on the 1100 block of Phelps, was booked for drug loitering (050 243 959).

At 2:31 p.m., an undercover Narcotics officer purchased marijuana from a 17 year old male at Kirkwood and Newhall. The suspect, living on the 1400 block of Hudson, was booked at YGC for sales of marijuana and possession for sale of marijuana (050 244 117).

At 3:17 p.m., an undercover Narcotics officer purchased crack cocaine from a woman at Keith and Thomas. The woman had obtained the crack from two men in a passing vehicle, and they were subsequently pulled over by cover officers. The driver of the vehicle, living on Venus Street, was booked for a variety of drug offenses and for violation of his felony probation. This suspect has been charged with drug loitering on nine prior occasions and apparently has no intention of changing his behavior. The female seller was charged with numerous drug charges and violation of her probation. The male passenger of the vehicle, living on the 1600 block of Oakdale, was charged with drug charges and an outstanding arrest warrant (050 244 327).

Warrant Arrest, McKinnon and Toland, March 3, 7:30 a.m. Officer Remedios was towing a vehicle for no registration when he was approached by the vehicle's owner who inquired what was going on. The man, a transient, had two outstanding drug warrants for his arrest and was booked (050 242 161).

Crack Cocaine Arrest, Mendell and McKinnon, March 3, 9:00 a.m.

Bayview plainclothes officers were on patrol at Mendell and McKinnon when they saw a known drug dealer engaged in a drug sale with a woman. The officers approached the couple and the dealer rode off on his bike and was lost in the area. The woman, holding a single rock of crack and living on the 1600 block of Yosemite, was booked for possession of crack cocaine. The officers phoned the probation officer of the seller and were told that the seller was going to be checking in at 4:00 p.m. The officers waited for the seller and arrested him when he reported in to his probation officer. The seller, not expecting to be searched, was still in possession of 7 individually wrapped rocks of crack cocaine and over $300.00 in currency. The seller, living on the 200 block of Cameron, was booked for possession of crack cocaine for sale, sales of crack cocaine, and violation of probation (050 242 503).

Robbery Arrest, Army and Bayshore, March 3, 9:50 a.m. Officers Hui, Hurley and Cohen responded to 101 Bayshore on the report of an assault. The officers spoke with a man who told them that he had just been attacked by a man who had hit him over the head with a bottle and then gone through his pockets. The suspect was described to officers and the description was put out over the radio. Moments later, a possible suspect was detained a few blocks away. The victim positively identified the detained man as the one who had attacked him. The suspect, living on Mariposa Street, was booked for robbery, aggravated assault, and an outstanding arrest warrant (050 243 175).

Heroin and Cocaine Arrest, Mendell and McKinnon, March 3, 10:18 a.m. Bayview plainclothes officers were on patrol at 3rd and McKinnon when they saw two men engaged in what appeared to be a drug transaction. The officers approached the men and found baggies of heroin on the seller, as well as some crack cocaine crumbs. The seller, living on the 1500 block of Hudson, was booked for possession of heroin for sale, possession of crack cocaine, and an outstanding arrest warrant (050 243 034).

Robbery, 3rd and Paul, March 3, 2:30 p.m. Bayview Officers Berge and Lew responded to the 1100 block of Key on the report of a robbery. The two victims (Asian males 14) told officers that a teen-age suspect had approached them and attempted to rob them. The victims had fought back, striking the suspect with their fists, and the suspect later returned with a baseball bat and struck one of the victims with the bat. The suspect then stole the victim's bike and fled the area.

The suspect is a Hispanic male, 16-17, 5'8", 130, wearing a white and black Oakland Raiders sweatshirt and black sweatpants (050 244 349).

Robbery, Olmstead and San Bruno, March 3, 4:15 p.m.

Bayview Officer Olson responded to a home on Dunsmuir and interviewed a 16 year old Asian male who stated that he had been robbed by three suspects while walking home from school. The victim stated that the suspects approached him and demanded money, and when he stated he had none, they punched him and kicked him, knocking him to the ground. The suspects then stole the victim's property and fled on foot. The suspects are all described as black males, 14-15, 5'8", 140, wearing all black clothing (050 244 571).

Warrant Arrest, first block of Morris, March 3, 4:23 p.m.

Bayview plainclothes officers were at the probation office on Morris looking for a man they knew to have an outstanding warrant when they located a second man who was wanted for an outstanding warrant charging him with burglary. The suspect, living on the 1100 block of Connecticut, was booked for the warrant (011 207 572).

Warrant Arrest, first block of Morris, March 3, 5:51 p.m.

Bayview plainclothes officers were exiting the probation office on Morris following an arrest when they saw a man "smoking a blunt" (marijuana cigarette) and stopped to speak with him. The man, living on 20th Avenue, was found to have an outstanding warrant for his arrest and was booked for the warrant (050 245 068).

Auto Burglary, 245 Bayshore, March 3, 8:45 p.m.

Officers Wilhelm and Correa responded to the Burger King on Bayshore on a call that a man was smashing windows of employees' vehicles in the parking lot. When the officers arrived, they found a man on the ground with his hands and feet bound with shop towels. An employee pointed to the man and stated, "This is the guy," but the officers had already concluded this. The employees told the officers that they had caught the suspect inside one of their parked vehicles, and when they approached him, they found that he was going through the contents of a backpack which had been in the auto.

The employees alerted police and attempted to detain the suspect, but he fought their efforts and was eventually restrained with towels. The suspect, homeless, was booked for auto burglary. The suspect is currently on probation for burglary and had two outstanding warrants for his arrest, the first a drug warrant from San Mateo County and the second a warrant from San Francisco charging him with burglary, possession of burglar tools and possession of stolen property (050 245 488).

Warrant Arrest, 470 Potrero, March 3, 10:40 p.m.
Officer Buelow received information that numerous individuals with warrants were "hiding out" inside an abandoned building at 470 Potrero Avenue. The officer found a large homeless encampment in the building and arrested two of the persons present for outstanding criminal warrants (050 245 927).
