

BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE July 29, 2004

Whitewater Trips

Our Whitewater Rafting Trips for August are now filled. Over 60 young men will be going on these two trips, and these young men represent every piece of "turf" in the Bayview, including Potrero Hill, Doublerock, Hunter's Point Hill (Kiska and Hunter's View), and even Alemany and Sunnysdale from outside of the Bayview. We are very optimistic about these trips and are hoping that as these young men get to know, trust and like each other, they will no longer feel the need to continue their turf wars.

Vacation

I will be on vacation with my family for the next two weeks, and Lt. Mary Stasko will be the acting captain in my absence. Please direct all inquiries to Lt. Stasko, who has been in the Bayview for a considerable period of time and is very familiar with its issues. I return the evening of August 14, and will be available from that point on.

Drug Free Zone Signs

I contacted DPT again this week regarding our signs, and was assured that they will be installed in the next few weeks around our district. As soon as these signs are installed, we are going to begin seeking enhancements for anyone caught selling or transporting drugs within 1000 feet of any of our schools, parks, youth facilities, etc.
