Crime and Enforcement Update

Indecent Exposure, 350 Girard, April 27, 3:30 p.m. Bayview Officer Kwan spoke with the dean of students at MLK School who told him that numerous students had reported to him that a special education student had exposed himself to the other students at an after-school program. Statements were taken from all of the students and the case will be investigated by our Juvenile Division (050 469 406).

False Registration, Thornton and Apollo, April 28, 5:00 a.m. Bayview Officer Daniels was on patrol when he stopped a vehicle for running a red light. The vehicle displayed a current registration sticker but a computer check revealed that the registration was actually expired. The driver admitted to the officer that she had taken the registration sticker from her neighbor and put it on her own vehicle because she has no insurance (DMV will not issue registration stickers without prrof of insurance). The driver, living on Latona Street, was cited for a variety of traffic offenses (050 468 806).

Possession of Stolen Property Arrest, 334 Alemany, April 28, 9:02 a.m. Bayview Officers Cruz and Festa were on patrol on Bayshore Blvd when they saw a vehicle drive through a red light and the officers stopped the vehicle. The officers determined that the driver was on probation out of Sacramento county for burglary, and also that his license was suspended. The officers conducted a probation search of the vehicle and located numerous credit cards, pieces of identification, a social security card, etc., in another person's name. The driver was asked about the property and stated, "I found them, I was going to return them. If you let me go I'll return everything." The owner of the property was tracked down and told officers that her purse had been stolen the previous evening at San Francisco State University. The suspect, living in San Bruno, was booked for possession of stolen property, fraud, and violation of probation (050 473 178).

Illegal Lodging, 3rd and 16th, April 28, 10:02 a.m. Bayview Officer Lavin responded on the report of an illegal encampment and found a man living in a tent near the adjacent building. The man told the officer that he has been living this way for five years. The man was cited for illegal lodging (050 469 581).

Suspicious Occurrence, 2500 San Bruno, April 28, 12:05 p.m. Bayview Officer Hui responded to the Family Connections Center and spoke with the female caller who stated that she had left the center and was approached by a Spanish speaking man who asked for directions to a church. A second Spanish speaking male approached and told the first man that he knew the location of the church. The first man asked the woman to accompany him to the church, and even offered to pay her, but she declined and went back into the center, feeling that there was something wrong with the entire situation (050 470 964).

Marijuana Arrest, 350 Channel, April 28, 5:01 p.m. Bayview Officers Lamma and Doherty were on patrol when they found a man loitering in an area frequented by transients. The man was in possession of both marijuana and narcotics paraphernalia and was cited for both offenses (050 472 164).

Suspended License, 1728 LaSalle, April 28, 5:41 p.m. Bayview Officers Mustafich, Solares and Lyons responded on the report of a man selling drugs from a vehicle. The officers located the vehicle and driver and recognized the driver as a well known local drug dealer who is on active drug probation. The officers stopped the man, who has been admonished for his drug loitering on seven prior occasions, and found numerous marijuana "roaches" in his ashtray. The suspect, living on the 1500 block of Hudson, was arrested and booked for driving with a suspended license, drug loitering and resisting arrest (050 472 368).

Possible Shots Fired, 3rd and Hollister, April 28, 8:32 p.m. Bayview Officers Aherne and Scott, along with Sgt. Fabbri, responded on a call of shots being fired and saw two men standing in front of an open garage. Upon seeing the officers, both men fled and the officers found one hiding behind a garbage can. No guns or casings were located and the man was released (050 472 948).

Theft Arrest, Battery of an Officer, 105 Dwight, April 28, 8:58 p.m. Bayview Officers Wilhelm and Correa responded on a call that a juvenile was stealing door locks from the premises. The officers spoke with the callers (who spoke broken English), and they stated that they had come home to find their 17 year old son removing the front door lock. The officers attempted to interview the son and he became violent, striking one officer and pushing another. The son was restrained and arrested, and the parents admitted that they were both afraid of their son, and that he had just been suspended from his school. The son was booked at CARC for theft and battery on a peace officer (050 473 093).

Domestic Violence, 92 Diana, April 29, 12:06 a.m. Bayview Officers Lane and Winesberry responded on a domestic violence call and met with the female caller who refused to provide any information. The daughters of the caller told officers that their father had just punched their mother twice, and then thrown the phone to the floor to prevent her from calling the police. The husband was booked for domestic violence $(050\ 473\ 463)$.
