ARRESTS OF INTEREST:

Wednesday, November 26th, 2008 – 9:38 AM – Defradiing a Cab Driver, Warrant Arrest - Van Dyke and Jennings – CS# 081 265 550 – While Sgt. Weathersby was on patrol he saw two grown men on the street in a physical fight. He summoned for additional assistance and separated the pair. It was learned that fight was between a cab driver and a fare that attempted to walk away without paying. The passenger admitted to hailing the cab with the intent to evade paying once he got to his destination. The passenger also had a $100,000 warrant for his arrest. The passenger got a ride to Bayview Station from the SFPD.

INCIDENTS OF INTEREST:

Wednesday, November 26th, 2008 – 3:35 PM – Robbery – 1100 block of Gilman Street - CS# 081 267 142 – Bayview Officers were flagged down a victim of purse snatch. The victim told the officers that she was walking when a black female, 20 -25 years of age, heavy set, wearing a black jacket, snatched the purse form her shoulder and ran into the Double Rock Housing Complex. Witnesses told the officers which way the suspect ran and even gave them the address of where the suspect ran into. Attempts to apprehend the suspect were negative, but the case is still under investigation.

Thursday, November 27th, 2008 – 6:16 PM – Battery — 1100 Oakdale – CS# 081 270 557 – Thanksgiving festivities ended early for a residence on the 1100 block of Oakdale Street when two adult brothers engaged in fisticuffs. The fight carried out into the street where neighbors broke it up. One of the combatants fled the scene prior to the police arrival. The remaining brother did not say what caused the fight. It was not indicated whether alcohol was a factor in this incident.
