On Monday, March 19th, Old Skool Cafe? and Project Wreckless teamed up for a beatification and clean up project up of Mendell Plaza and the Oakdale Garden. Chief Scott was there to lend a hand along with me and a few of my officers who all rolled up their sleeves!

Old Skool Cafe is a faith-based, violence prevention program, providing marketable employment skills in the restaurant industry to at-risk youth ages 16-22.

Project Wreckless targets "at risk" youth in our community for their capacity development program and immersive curriculum centered around the restoration of some amazing old cars.
