It is amazing how fast summer has come and gone. I want to thank everyone who attended National Night Out. We had fun meeting and chatting with everyone. A special thanks to those who volunteered and/or made contributions to the events.

The Outside Lands Concert attracted thousands and a number of attendees later gravitated to the Irving Street corridors. During the event, we periodically received noise complaints from residents, and some were from the Lake Merced area. We thank you for your patience, as we were able to work with the event coordinator in getting the bass turned down to a moderate level.
