San Francisco police are seeking the public's help in a bank robbery that occurred on January 4, 2013, just before noon. The Bank located at the 6000 block Geary Blvd, was robbed by two male suspects.

In this incident the two suspects entered the bank. The first suspect held the bank employees at gun point demanding money while the second suspect stayed by the entrance doors. The employees complied and the two suspects fled the bank with an undisclosed amount of cash. The suspects were last seen getting into a dark colored vehicle after the robbery.

Both suspects are identified as black males. One suspect is believed to be 6'01", 230-250 lbs, 30-35 years old, dark beard (possibly fake beard). He was last seen wearing a blue and black checkered long sleeve shirt, a black Orlando Magic hat, black shoulder bag, and holding a handgun.

The second suspect is believed to be 5'06" last seen wearing a white and black checkered hooded jacket.

Anyone with information is urged to contact the San Francisco Police Major Crimes Unit at (415) 553-1201, the SFPD Anonymous Tip line, 415-575-4444, or Text-a-Tip to TIP411 and begin the message with SFPD.
