On March 23, 2019 at approximately 8:40PM, San Francisco Police responded to the 1300 block of Fillmore Street regarding a shooting.

Upon arrival, officers located four persons suffering from apparent gunshot wounds. San Francisco Fire Department personnel responded to the scene and transported three adult victims. The fourth victim, Mister Dee C. Simmons, a 25 year-old male was pronounced dead at the scene. Of those transported by ambulance, a 27 year-old male remains listed in life threatening status. Two additional victims, a 51 year-old female, Alameda resident and a 25 year-old male, Concord resident (both with non-life threatening injuries) were transported to the hospital by private automobiles.
