On July 15, 2019 at approximately 1:09PM, San Francisco Police officers assigned to Central Station responded to Stockton and Pacific Streets regarding a robbery. Upon arrival they found two victims who had been assaulted.

The officers determined that three unidentified suspects approached the first victim, a 56 year-old San Francisco resident lifting him up off of his feet and then throwing him on the ground. The second victim, a 69 year-old San Francisco resident attempted to intervene and was knocked unconscious. During the attack, the suspects stole a watch from the wrist of the first victim. Both victims were transported to the hospital for head injuries and have since been treated and released.

Investigators from the San Francisco Police Department Robbery Detail are requesting the public's assistance in identifying the suspects. Surveillance video and still photographs of the suspects accompany this news release.
