On July 2, 2020, the San Francisco Police Department was made aware of an assault that occurred around 11am on the same day in the area of Waller and Belvedere Streets. The suspect was observed by witnesses pushing the victim violently against a truck and then punching him multiple times while he was on the ground. After the incident, the victim got up and walked away westbound on Waller Street.

The Park Station Investigations Team (SIT) immediately initiated an investigation which has resulted in the positive identification of the suspect.

San Francisco Police investigators are asking for the public's assistance in identifying the victim described as a white male adult. Photos and videos of the victim accompany this news release.
