Investigators from the San Francisco Police Department's Missing Persons Unit are seeking the public's assistance in locating Lester Greene who was reported missing from his home in the Parkmerced Area of San Francisco on January 5, 2021.

Mr. Greene was last seen boarding a Muni #28-line coach in the Taraval District on January 4, 2021 at approximately 5:00 PM and was reportedly heading to the UCSF hospital on Parnassus Avenue. He frequents the Hayes Valley and Downtown areas of San Francisco.

Greene is considered at risk due to medical conditions.

Greene is described as an African American male, age 70, last seen wearing a black beanie, black pea-coat, black sweatpants, and athletic shoes. His photo accompanies this news release.

Anyone who sees Greene should call their local law enforcement agency. Please be prepared to provide his current location and clothing description.
