On Wednesday, April 7, 2021 at approximately 1:10 a.m., a suspect stole a pickup truck at Geary and Stockton Streets. The owner of the vehicle attempted to stop the suspect but was injured in the incident. The victim sustained life-threatening injuries as a result and is currently in the hospital. Video surveillance obtained depicts the suspect (in red hoodie) walking with another subject (in black and tan jacket) just before the incident. The pickup truck has been located but the suspect remains outstanding.

The SFPD General Crimes/Burglary Unit is leading the investigation and is seeking the public's assistance in identifying the suspect or the person of interest/possible witness. Images of the suspect and the subject accompany this release. Below is the video link of the suspect and person of interest.
