On September 30, 2016, at approximately 4:30 a.m. San Francisco Police officers responded to a shooting on the 700 block of Ellis Street. Upon their arrival, they encountered the victim, 24-year-old San Francisco resident Mitchell Warren, who was suffering from a gunshot wound.

Officers rendered aid to Warren until the San Francisco Fire Department (SFFD) arrived on the scene. Warren was transported to Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital (ZSFGH) where, despite life-saving efforts by medical personnel, he died from his injuries.

On July 25, 2018, the San Francisco Police Department held a press conference at Police Headquarters to request the public's assistance in solving this homicide. The Department's Investigations Bureau provided information including surveillance video and still photographs of the suspect. Members of the victim's family were also in attendance and appealed for witnesses to come forward.

During the course of this ongoing investigation, surveillance video of the suspect was located. The surveillance video shows the suspect riding on the handlebars of a bicycle. The individual pedaling the bicycle has already been identified. Also, see SFPD News Release 18-098.

Homicide investigators are asking for assistance in identifying the subject riding on the handlebars of the bicycle. A photo of the victim was provided by his family and accompanies this news release. Below you will find a video and still images of the suspect.

The San Francisco Police Department is offering a $75,000 reward for information leading to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the murder of Mitchell Warren. Anyone with information is asked to call the SFPD 24-Hour Tip Line at 1-415-575-4444 or Text a Tip to TIP411 and begin the text message with SFPD. You may remain anonymous.
