On August 18, 2023, at approximately 3:03 PM San Francisco Police assigned to Mission Station responded to the 2400 block of Harrison Street to investigate a reported shooting. When officers arrived on scene, they located a victim suffering from apparent gunshot wounds. Officers rendered aid and summoned medics to the scene. Medics transported the victim to a local hospital for life-threatening injuries. Despite the lifesaving efforts of officers, emergency responders, and hospital staff, the victim was declared deceased at the hospital. No arrests have been made at this time.

Investigators from the San Francisco Police Department Homicide Detail arrived on scene and are leading this open and active investigation.
