Upon arrival, officers quickly determined that this incident was an active shooter situation and formed teams to immediately enter the building to locate and stop the shooter. Several teams located victims who had been shot and brought them out of the building to where they could receive medical attention. During this time, another team of officers located the suspect, Jimmy Lam, a 38 year-old San Francisco resident, who turned a gun on himself and committed suicide.

Two other shooting victims were transported to Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital where they were treated and released later in the evening. Five additional persons were treated and released from various San Francisco Hospitals for non-life
